ABSTRACT

New York State college and university personnel data for 1982-1983 are presented, with statistical tables providing employment statistics for specific institutions, as well as for various institutional classifications. In addition, employment trend data are included by sector for 1978-1983. Data are provided on the number of full- and part-time employees by position, and the number of men and women employed by position, by institutional classification. This information is presented for specific institutions and for the following institutional groupings: total state, total public, State University of New York, City University of New York, independent, proprietary, two-year, and four-year and higher. Data are also provided for categories within the sectors (e.g., university colleges, health sciences centers). The trend data, which is provided by position and full- and part-time status, cover the following institutional types: independent, proprietary, state university, city university, and total state. The following positions are covered: executive, administrative, managerial; instructional faculty; other professional; and nonprofessional. Finally, data on tenure status and salary are included. The State Education Department does not discriminate on the basis of age, color, creed, disability, marital status, veteran status, national origin, race, or sex in the educational programs and activities which it operates. This policy is in compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972. Inquiries concerning this policy may be referred to the Department's Affirmative Action Officer, Education Building, Albany, NY 12234.

DEFINITIONS

OCCUPATIONAL ACTIVITIES

1. EXECUTIVE, ADMINISTRATIVE, MANAGERIAL - Includes persons who are assigned a primary responsibility for management of the institution, a department, or a subdivision. The assignment may require the performance of work directly related to management policies or general business operations of the institution and should require discretion, independent judgement, and direction of the work of others.

2. INSTRUCTIONAL - Includes persons with assignments customarily made for the purpose of instruction; excludes persons assigned a job associated with research projects.

   Faculty: Generally associated with titles of professor, associate professor, assistant professor, instructor, and lecturer.

   Teaching Assistants and Associates: Includes persons who carry out instruction with guidance from others who exercise the primary responsibility. Typically, the position is staffed by people with student status.

3. PROFESSIONAL (research, business, health, etc. other than administrative or instructional) - Includes only persons whose positions typically require a bachelor's degree or its equivalent, persons with assignments of a professional nature associated with organized research projects, and persons assigned to positions requiring knowledge of an advanced type in a field of science or learning, or original and creative work in an artistic field.

4. NONPROFESSIONAL

   Technical: Includes persons with assignments requiring specialized knowledge or skills which may be acquired through experience or degree certificate programs below the bachelor's degree.

   Office: Includes persons with assignments typically associated with clerical activity.

   Crafts and Trades: Includes persons assigned to activities typically requiring knowledge or skill gained in recognized crafts or trades.

   Service: Includes persons assigned to activities requiring a limited degree of previously acquired skills and knowledge.
